

CENTENARY OF SCOUTING (1907 – 2007)

Issued 20th February, 2007

Since Scouting began in 1907 at Brown Sea Island, over 200 million Scouts have worn the Scout symbol, making it one of the more highly recognized emblems in the world. Today, over 200 World Scouting countries and territories, more than 28 million members continue to wear it with pride.

All the proposed designs presented by the Scout Association of Zimbabwe, have incorporated the World Scout Emblem. The symbol is white on a royal purple background, colours chosen because, in heraldry, white stands for purity and purple for leadership and helping others.

In the World Scout emblem, the Fleur-de-Lis is surrounded by a circle of rope tied with a reef knot to symbolize the strength and unity of the world brotherhood of Scouting: "Even as one cannot undo a reef knot, no matter how hard one pulls on it, so as it expands, the movement remains united."

Zimbabwe's Scouting Emblem

Zimbabwe's Scout Badge

The three tips of the Fleur-de-Lis represent the three main parts of the Scout promise: duty to God, obedience to the Scout Law, and service to others. The two five-point stars stand for truth and knowledge, and the 10 points on the stars remind us of the 10 points of the Scout law. The ring holding the emblem together represents the bond of brotherhood.

The Scout hat was founded in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe by Colonel Baden-Powell.

The four stamps were designed by The Boy Scouts Association of Zimbabwe and air-brushed by Lucia Marisamhuka - Terrie Lue Graphics.

$400: Scout Badge on Great Zimbabwe

This design shows the World Scout emblem incorporated or superimposed on the Great Zimbabwe Ruins, symbolizing that while scouting was founded in England and spread to other parts of the World. In Zimbabwe it cuts across all generations and has become part of our culture, and as the Great Zimbabwe ruins remain solid so does the Scouting philosophy reminding us of duty to God and our country. Great Zimbabwe was built as a result of team work and helping each other, values which are entrenched in the Scout Philosophy.

$1,500: Scout Badge on Zimbabwe Flag

This design shows the world emblem imposed on the colours of the Zimbabwe flag on the Zimbabwe map. This design explains that the Scout Movement is truly Zimbabwean supported by the Government and exists in many schools teaching young people the true value of patriotism. It is found in all the country's provinces. The blue is reflective of the Association's hope and contribution in the development and maintenance of peace in our country.

$2,000: Dove of Peace & Zimbabwe Bird

This design shows the World badge for Scout Movement's celebration of 100 years of Scouting. The white dove reflects our quest for peace, while the national bird emphasizes our pride in being Zimbabwean as we celebrate 100 years of World Scouting.

$2,500: Scout Badge on map of Africa

This design shows the Scout Emblem superimposed into the map of Africa, with the Zimbabwean flag colours forming the background. As World Scouting celebrates 100 years, its impact has been felt in many communities, as Scouts have been involved in environmental education, working with street children and other vulnerable communities, fighting the HIV and AIDS pandemic and creating employment opportunities through life skills education. The African Union declared the 13th of March every year as the day of the Scout. A number of Zimbabweans and the majority of heads of states in Africa support and encourage the development of Scouting.
