

Spectacular Zambia stamp perforation incident

During the printing of the K10 value of the 1989 'Frogs and Toads' something went dreadfully wrong with the comb perforation. It resulted in a 'damaged' right marginal imperforate block of eight, with portions of seven other stamps. On the left hand side, the piece shows four diagonal and nearly coincident strikes from the perforator.

