

Police Cachets

Police Cachets have been divided in two main types: Military Police or Provost Marshal cachets and British South Africa Police cachets. This second section has been further split into two groups: those relating to Salisbury and other Town Cachets.

A number of town cachets are listed which are not recorded in Memoir 17. Most of these have only one example recorded. It is likely that every major town and some small settlements (e.g. Nyamandhlovu) had a police cachet and so there are still many more to record.
