

RSCJ 311: In a fine Editorial Sean Burke recounts the words of Margaret Manion regarding the extraordinary achievements of artists..... achievements which one could not have predicted, yet when we reflect on them we see how they relate to a whole... the Sarawak BSAC colour trials came to mind; a particularly drab range of colours but when matched produced the handsome and visually striking 1896 Issue.

